INITIAL ORDER OF DEFAULT
(Failure to Appear at Proceeding)

1. ORDER SUMMARY

- 1.1. The Licensee was given due notice, but failed to appear for prehearing proceeding (PHC) without first obtaining an order of postponement. Therefore, the Licensee was held in default under RCW 34.05.440. Based on the Licensee's default, the penalties appropriate to the allegations stated in the Complaint and it's attached documents in this matter shall be imposed, subject to further Liquor Control Board action.
- 1.2. Specifically, the penalty shall be: 5 days suspension or $500 in lieu of suspension.
- 1.3. The Licensee's Request for Hearing shall be dismissed.

2. HEARING

2.1 Administrative Law Judge: Larry Rogers

2.2 Date and Time of Prehearing Proceeding (PHC): August 11, 2011 at 10:00 AM.

2.3 Appearances By Parties:

2.3.1 The Licensee, Supperclubs Inc, did not appear.

2.3.2 No representative for the Licensee appeared.

2.3.3 Washington State Liquor Control Board appeared through Assist. Attorney General Gordon Karg.

3. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

3.1 A prehearing proceeding was scheduled for this matter at the date and time above stated. Written notice of the proceeding was timely mailed to the parties by First Class United States Mail, postage prepaid. The notice informed the parties that they were required to attend the proceeding before an Administrative Law Judge of the Washington Office of Administrative Hearings and how to attend. The notice also informed the parties that failure to attend the scheduled proceeding could result in an order of default against the party who failed to attend. The notice provided both parties with instructions on how to apply to the Administrative Law Judge for a postponement of the proceeding.

3.2 The Administrative Law Judge timely convened the proceeding as set forth in the written notice of the proceeding. The Washington State Liquor Control Board timely appeared and was represented by the above-named person. The Administrative Law Judge waited 15 minutes beyond the scheduled start time for the proceeding, but the Licensee did not appear. Therefore, the Administrative Law Judge deemed the Licensee to be in default.

3.3 Based on the Licensee's default, the penalties appropriate to the allegations stated in the Complaint and it's attached documents in this matter shall be imposed, subject to further Liquor Control Board action.

3.4 Specifically, the actions and penalties alleged and the penalties to be awarded by this Initial Order of Default are: 5 days suspension or $500 in lieu of suspension.

3.5 The Licensee's Request for Hearing shall be dismissed.

4. ORDER

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

- 4.1 The above-named Licensee is in DEFAULT.
- 4.2 The Licensee's Request for Hearing is dismissed.

Signed and Issued at Olympia, Washington, on the 17th day of August 2011.

NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

Motion to Vacate Default: RCW 34.05.440 provides, “(3) Within seven days after service of a default order under subsection (2) of this section, or such longer period as provided by agency rule, the party against whom it was entered may file a written motion with the Administrative Law Judge who issued the Initial Order of Default requesting that the order be vacated, and stating the grounds relied upon. During the time within which a party may file a written motion under this subsection, the presiding officer may adjourn the proceedings or conduct them without the participation of that party, having due regard for the interests of justice and the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings. By agency rule (WAC 10-08-110), service is complete upon mailing of this order; therefore, any motion to vacate a default order must be made within a total of seven (7) days after the date of the mailing of the default order.”

Petition for Review of Initial Order: The foregoing order is an “initial order” as that term is intended by WAC 314-42-095. Any party may file a petition for review of the initial order with the Liquor Control Board within twenty days of the date of service of the initial order. RCW 34.05.464, WAC 10-08-211, and WAC 314-42-095(2)(a). The petition for review must (a) identify the parts of the initial order to which the petitioner objects and (b) refer to the evidence in the record that supports the petitioner's position.

A petitioner must mail a copy of the petition for review to each of the other parties and their representatives at the same time the petitioner files the petition. Within ten days after service of the petition for review, any other parties may file a response to the petition. WAC 314-42-095(2)(b). A responding party must likewise mail a copy of the response to each of the other parties and their representatives at the same time the responding party files the response.

The members of the Liquor Control Board will review the administrative record, the initial order, the petition for review, and any responses. WAC 314-42-095(3).
