Based on the Licensee's default, the penalties appropriate to the allegations stated in the Complaint and its attached documents in this matter shall be imposed, subject to further Liquor Control Board action.
- 1.2. Specifically, the penalty shall be: as set forth in the citation.
- 1.3. The Licensee's Request for Hearing shall be dismissed.

3. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

3.1 A prehearing proceeding was scheduled for this matter at the date and time above stated. NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

Motion to Vacate Default: RCW 34.05.440 provides, “(3) Within seven days after service of a default order under subsection (2) of this section, or such longer period as provided by agency rule, the party against whom it was entered may file a written motion with the Administrative Law Judge who issued the Initial Order of Default requesting that the order be vacated, and stating the grounds relied upon. During the time within which a party may file a written motion under this subsection, the presiding officer may adjourn the proceedings or conduct them without the participation of that party, having due regard for the interests of justice and the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings. By agency rule (WAC 10-08-110), service is complete upon mailing of this order; therefore, any motion to vacate a default order must be made within a total of seven (7) days after the date of the mailing of the default order.”

Petition for Review of Initial Order: The foregoing order is an “initial order” as that term is intended by WAC 314-42-095. Any party may file a petition for review of the initial order with the Liquor Control Board within twenty days of the date of service of the initial order. RCW 34.05.464, WAC 10-08-211, and WAC 314-42-095(2)(a). The petition for review must (a) identify the parts of the initial order to which the petitioner objects and (b) refer to the evidence in the record that supports the petitioner's position.

A petitioner must mail a copy of the petition for review to each of the other parties and their representatives at the same time the petitioner files the petition. Within ten days after service of the petition for review, any other parties may file a response to the petition. WAC 314-42-095(2)(b). A responding party must likewise mail a copy of the response to each of the other parties and their representatives at the same time the responding party files the response.

The members of the Liquor Control Board will review the administrative record, the initial order, the petition for review, and any responses. WAC 314-42-095(3).
