BOARD MEMBER AND EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT REPORTS

The Board discussed the Board Meeting procedures surrounding the Public Comment period. The Board currently allows four minutes per person and Chair Postman requested Board consideration of the time limit for when there is a large turnout, with the possibility of reducing the speakers' time. Other State agencies require all public comment to be in writing.

Chair Vollendroff noted that he was surprised at the liberal allotment of time given to each speaker because he hasn't come across that in any other public meetings. Vollendroff offered that the LCB provides a number of opportunities for the public to engage with members of the Board, and if they had more to say than they could do in their allotted time, they could put their comments in writing to the Board.

The Board proposed setting a three-minute per person time limit with a hard cutoff for testimony at 11:30 am, beginning the July 17th Board meeting.
