10:10 AM	Review minutes from April 6, 2023; Review work group activity between April 6 and June 1, 2023
10:15 PM	Continued Discussion: Diminishing the gap between scientific expression and regulatory/statutory expression. Creating an agreed upon language or nomenclature around the terms we use. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Human Safety Guidance: Is there a way we could look at cannabis product classes (flower, edibles, distillate) versus a single crop since safety around consumption method could be very different? If so, are the other crop/extract proxies we could use to help guide safety guidelines around any of the classes? How does the nomenclature we’re begun to develop fit within those potential guidelines? What are our data holes (or issues with proxy data)?</li> <li>• Production/Farming Guidance How does the level of a contaminant in the soil effect floral contaminant levels? Are there studies we could explore doing in the state on hemp with our local universities (accessing larger testing networks across state lines) to help generate data to guide planting decisions for production of “safe crops”?</li> </ul>
