

November 22, 2021

Release Notes

BUG FIX (13769) – It was found that the system was not accepting decimals in the quantity field for Sales csv records. This was resulting in upload failures. A fix was deployed and tested in the testing environment and now the system will accept sales files with decimals as expected.

BUG FIX (13774) – It was found that the system was not accepting decimals in the quantity field for Inventory Adjustment csv records. This was resulting in upload failures. A fix was deployed and tested in the testing environment and now the system will accept Inventory Adjustment files with decimals as expected.

BUG FIX (13775) – It was found that the system was not accepting decimals in the quantity field for Inventory Transfer csv records. This was resulting in upload failures. A fix was deployed and tested in the testing environment and now the system will accept Inventory Transfer files with decimals as expected.

BUG FIX (13773) – It was found that the system was not accepting decimals as expected in the Inventory csv records. This was resulting in incorrect data being inserted in the database. A fix was deployed and tested in the testing environment and now the system will accept Inventory files with decimals and insert the correct data into the database as expected.