

A “family member” is defined in the social equity rules as:

- A biological, adopted, or foster child, a stepchild, a child's spouse, or a child to whom the applicant stands in loco parentis (in place of the parent), is a legal guardian, or is a de facto parent, regardless of age or dependency status; Grandchild, grandparent, parent, or sibling of a child as defined in (b)(i) of the social equity rules subsection;
- Spouse or domestic partner;
- Any individual who regularly resides in the applicant's home or where the relationship creates an expectation that the applicant care for the person and that individual depends on the applicant for care, or that the individual care for the applicant and that the applicant depends on the individual for care.