

Social Equity Licenses Available by County *

* The LCB changed its rules to allow social equity applicants more flexibility to find a viable location. However, please note that there are cities and counties that have bans, moratoria, and other permitting or zoning restrictions that prohibit or restrict where a retailer can operate. It is highly recommended that you check with the city or county for local restrictions.